Mrs. A. Holland

Services were held Monday, Feb. 24, at St. Augustine's Church in Austin, Minn., for Mrs. Aloysius D. (Margaret R.) Holland, 85, who died at her home there February 22.

Mrs. Holland, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ronayne, was born April 8, 1889, in Aberdeen. She taught school near Westport and was a bookkeeper at Western Union in Aberdeen before her marriage to Aloysius D. Holland of Columbia on November 26, 1914. They farmed near Putney until 1939 when they moved to St. Joseph, Minn. In 1942 they moved to Austin where she was again active in women's organizations in the Catholic Church.

Mrs. Holland is survived by her widower; three daughters, Mrs. Lawrence (Dorothy) Heister of Austin, Minn., Mrs. John (Alice) Dapra of Hartville, Wyo., and Mrs. Jack (Adelaide) Essila of Minneapolis; nine grandchildren; and four sisters.

She was preceded in death by one son, three brothers and two sisters.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Austin.
